Lori,
I can't wait
until next year,
even though we are going to be Seniors! It will be kind of fun being the oldest kids in the school. I hope really going to be different. I'm so we both get pom-pom. It really be a blast! Camp last summer was going to forget it. I hope we get to go back next year Dianne's joke will probably live on forever in my mind because it was so funny. Let me tell you what it was have any classes together next year? I'm going to scream. I can't believe that we didn't have any classes together this year. I don't even believe that we didn't have any classes because we were so all. It wasn't any fun talking at the lockers because we were so rushed. That's better now that we're half-way fun, especially when we got to talk about happened next year. I can't believe that we are Prom. Could we be so lucky next year. I can't believe that we are actually going to see one of our classmates getting married. It really is weird. Well Galway I'm running out of time. I hear in History class so I think I should stop writing. Good Luck at Pom-Pom try-outs and have a very good summer, see ya next year Senior!

Friend always

This is a very important year in the history of the U.S. "It is the aim of history to know the . . . present by understanding what came into the present from the past."

Young citizens will play a critical role in shaping the future of our nation. The Government and Economic Department tries to stress this fact. Students are allowed to form opinions on national and local events. It is important to be in touch with such events as they continue to shape our lives.

Students acquire an understanding of the French people and their culture, as well as their language.

Have you ever wondered what you'll be doing for the rest of your life?

You'll probably be making decisions, hundreds of them daily, ranging from very magnificent (should I do my Math next hour? Should I wear brown or black?) to very crucial (can I afford to buy this house for $35,000? Will I be happy married to this person for the rest of my life?).

Decision making is taught, or happens in every class taken. The roots of logical thought, however, can be traced at least 2,500 years to the Greeks, and possibly further. Many of the great Greek philosophers were mathematicians who established rules of logic which still prevail.

Logical thought isn't luck, or inherited; it can be learned. That is one of the goals of any school system, and particularly of a math department.

Science begins with curiosity. Man by his nature wants to know what makes things 'tick', what they are made of, and why they act the way they do. Scientists believe that everything in the universe behaves in an orderly way and that man can discover and seek to understand this order. This desire to discover and understand the things around you is the key to man's knowledge of the material universe. Science, then, is the orderly, systematic investigation of such questions.

Co-Op Work Study Program

There were 14 students this year who were in Co-Op. Jobs were set up for a minimum of 15 hours per week along with a co-op class. The class aided the students in their work by teaching such things as: how to apply for a job, why money is deducted from their checks, figuring income taxes, and how to budget their money. The co-op program's goal was to prepare the students in their future plans after high school.

I dont know what to say yet, although there's so many things to talk about. I had a pretty good time this year. It's gone so fast yet im so sick of it I could quit (I wont, though) next year should be more fun. We've gone through some pretty good times together I'll never forget our little disagreements every now + then, but to me, thats all been forgotten. Remember my party, waiting for Glynn to come and he never did. Brat! Remember we kept falling asleep. Remember in Trish van, taking our little trip to Downtown. You + me were the only good girls, and it was my party. I had a lot of fun trying to help you with Tim. I wish I could succeed in him. I'm praying for ya! You hang in there and dont give up no matter what. I'll try my hardest. Well- remember all our good times and never forget the good ol' Nursing home. wow- what a place. I'll always there. I know. but I want you to remember you can always come to me. I'll try my hardest to give you the kind of friendship you need.

always Remember, me,

Love,

Rita

Track 1975 Has A Disappointing Season

In varsity track, Matt Stewart was the bright spot of the season. He took second in discus, in the District meet and placed well in the state finals. The other top point getters were Jeff McIlvanie, Chris Klause and Al Hudson. Le-Win also placed a surprising third in the conference meet below Dakota and Stockton.

The frosh-soph placed second in the conference behind Galena. The top performers for the frosh-soph were Chris Klause, Brian Mani, and Duane Snook.

Hustle And Desire Looks To Future

The 1975-1976 frosh-soph team continually gave up three to four inches to their opponents as the lack of size was the biggest obstacle in their path. Even though this year's record was 1-18, the Panthers gave Lanark and Galena very tight contests which went down to the wire before their lack of size prevailed.

Brian Mani led the team in rebounds and points followed by Doug Kempel, Dan Hughes, Chris Heer and Brad England. The biggest asset for the Panthers was their hustle and desire which enabled them to play against great odds and put on a good showing. So, the future holds the key to success and knowledge.

Sophomore Brad England showed a lot of hustle and desire on defense as well as being the floor leader on offense for the Panthers.

This year's freshmen squad showed a lot of hustle and determination even though they had a losing season, they were never out of any game in which they played.

A balanced offense was the key as they won three out of their last five games. There was no real outstanding performer but the outlook for the squad as a team is good in the upcoming years.

This year's schedule contained six A and B games that gave everyone on the squad valuable game experience which will pay off in the long run.

This was the first year for the Lena-Winslow wrestling squad, and what a year it was. The first meet, against Orangeville, started the season that won the respect of most of their opponents. Coach Bond reflected that in both the Galena Tournament and the District Tournament at least 80% of the opposing coaches complimented the team on its desire and drive.

Dave Evans sizes up his opponent before shooting the takedown.

The successful season was aided by three returning letter winners and increased participation among the girls. This season's Most Valuable Player, Junior Paula Miller, will be returning next year along with three other letter winners.

The Junior Varsity squad, setting the tone for years to come, also finished with a fine record of 4-2 in conference play.

Girls Become Champs At Basketball

In 1976 women's lib continued to invade Lena-Winslow High School. Over 30 girls slipped into a pair of tennis shoes and began learning the fundamentals of passing, dribbling, shooting and playing defense in the game of basketball.

Two teams were formed, one at Junior-Senior level to compete against teams in the Northwestern Conference. The girls have shown a lot of enthusiasm and willingness to learn, therefore, girls basketball should have a bright future at Lena-Winslow High School.

The French Club promotes the use of the French language and gives students outside-of-class opportunities to become acquainted with the culture of the French people. Activities include a five-course banquet of authentic French cuisine which club members prepare and serve to each other and guests. A Spring trip to Chicago with visits to the Art Institute and a French Restaurant is a favorite for club members, as is the end-of-school picnic at Lake Le-Aqua-Na.

Early in the year the S.A.E. (Student Action for Education) group went to the Pizza Hut in Freeport for a pizza party to welcome new members and start off the year's activities.

The club took charge of activities for one day during homecoming week. Among the activities S.A.E. sponsored for the day were a pie eating contest and a car-stuff. They also put homecoming "bicentennial minutes" over the P.A. system throughout the day.

S.A.E. planned a trip to St. Francis School for Exceptional Children in Freeport and also a trip to Illinois State University to tour the campus for college visitation. The group planned programs of foreign exchange students from neighboring schools to speak at a meeting.

Panther Press was offered to students as one of the mini-courses in English, and students received a full credit for the course. Thirteen students went to NISPA at Northern University in DeKalb on April 9. A special highlight of Panther Press was the special edition they put out on the February school board meeting. Panther Press also had a Christmas party in March and purchased sweat shirts for the members to wear. Unfortunately, because of the cost of the publication of the ads, it may not be offered in the classroom for another year.

Lou,
Well its been quite a year. We had a lot of fun in typing, getting in trouble. The study hall has been fun when we can talk about Twins Roger. I think I might try out for Pom Pom, but I dont know if Im brave enough. I hope you can read this. Maybe someday we will go doubling but I dont think it will happen. you keep trying with ---. Dont know if I should put his name because someone might read it that is not suppose to. Well hope we can do some stuff this summer together. Something good. By the way Bill Hyde sucks. I put that in every year book I write in. Because he gets upset about it. Go out for Basket. Ball + volleyball next year we could have a lot of fun. Well see you around Cant think of anything to say right now. If I think of anything else Ill write it. Laurel

PS. Good luck with Tim. Hope you go out with him because you deserve him lots more than you know who.

I know how honored you must feel to have me writting in your yearbook, but in time you'll get over it. I must tell you I don't feel to honored writing in the ad sections. - Disgusting! Well we've made it through another year - Thank God! Did you have fun in News-paper class? I think that Nelson is crazy! Remember those times when we collected ads for the Panther Press? You would let me off at my house and it took 5 minutes before I came back out again! Do you remember Prom?!? You and Kick ate at the Idle Hour Restaurant. That was so much fun! Well I don't have much more to say. I'll probably see you around this summer.

Lori,

Well I guess I am now going to write a nice long letter in your yearbook. The year to me has really gone fast, and was one of my best years ever. We have done some pretty crazy things together. Remember Kim's party? Sheila sat on me after she wet her pants. Then I got to sit on the bleachers and watch you do your pom-pom routines. You were really good. I hope you try-out again. Now next year will be our last year and I'm sorry afraid we are all going to lose touch with one another. Will we have gone through a whole year & (typing and made it. Kind of) then There is history - No comment. We are gonna be big seniors next year. So have fun over the summer - good luck next year. Sean "77" We're doing the same Let that happen!! shoved keep on things together the as before. Well, I hope whatever you choose to do the rest of your life brings you all the happiness you ever want. Good luck always,

Jean "77"

Lori
I've tried to get out of signing this dumb
book but I guess
I better get this done or you might get mad and that would be terrible. I didn't really see you much this year, till try not to keep it all day and forget to give it back to you like I said did with this. I hope that next year we have more. Well Dim you had fun at Prom even tho it was kind of a bore. I can't think of anything else to write but hope you have fun this summer and well be Seniors. Our last year in school.

A friend Always
